

Learning with the use of games

The big wind
blows

Congratulation!

- You Are Very Smart!
  1. You Have Decided to Come to College!
  2. You Have Chosen a Community College!
  3. You are Attending the “New Students Orientation” Today!

The Big Wind Blows

- Who Am I?
  - Heidie G. Hutchinson
  - Associate Professor, Technology
  - Web Programming
  - This is my 28th years of Teaching at CCBC!
- Why Am I Presenting This Session?
  - I had a Big Motivation to Go to College
  - I like to talk about my motivation
  - I like to find out about your motivation

Why are you in college?

The Big Wind Blows

- The objectives for this session are:
  1. You will have fun.
  2. You will identify 2 or 3 reasons you are in college.
  3. You will see that there are other students here with the same reasons for attending college.

Areas of Studies

1. Liberal Arts/ Science
  - Communication, English, etc.
2. Technology
  - Networking, Web Programming, etc.
3. Business
  - Accounting, Business Management, etc.
4. Aviation
  - Professional Pilot, ATC, etc.
5. Allied Health
  - Nursing, MLT, etc.
6. Other

Your Schedule

1. Mon, Wed
2. Tues, Thurs
3. Mon, Tues, Wed, Thurs
4. Day Only
5. Evening Only
6. Both Day and Evening
7. Online Courses

Reasons to graduate from college

1. More stable job history
2. Earn more promotions
3. Happier with your work
4. Less likely to become unemployed compared to a non-graduate
5. It will be easier to find a job and keep the job

Reasons to graduate from college

- Other Benefits:
  - A. Learn how to work independently and discover new knowledge
  - B. Encounter and learn how to appreciate cultural, artistic, and spiritual dimensions in life
  - C. Learn how to seek appropriate information before making a decision
  - D. Intellectual growth and interaction with socioeconomic groups other than your own

MOTIVATION: a formula for success

- $V \times E = \text{Motivation}$
  1. Value – what value do you place on getting your degree? 1 - 10
  2. Expectation – what is your level of expectation for success? 1 – 10
  3. Are you 100 % motivated?

BIG WIND BLOWS

Your TURN

- Why are you in college?
- How do you see your college experience impacting your future?
- How do you want college to change you?
Why?

